FOUNDATION MEMORIAL TO THE MURDERED JEWS OF EUROPE

The Foundation Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe is a federal foundation which was established on the basis of a resolution of the German Bundestag on 25 June 1999. It oversees the Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe and the Information Centre and is also responsible for the Memorial to the Homosexuals Persecuted under the National Socialist Regime, the Memorial to the Sinti and Roma of Europe Murdered under the National Socialist Regime and the Memorial and Information Point for the Victims of National Socialist 'Euthanasia'-Killings.

According to its founding law, the Foundation's mission is to contribute to »ensuring that all victims of the National Socialist Regime are remembered and honored appropriately«. The Foundation curates special exhibitions, hosts meetings with Holocaust survivors and publishes survivor testimonials. The Foundation also organizes a wide range of lectures and workshops to the visitors of the memorials.

MEMORIAL TO THE MURDERED JEWS OF EUROPE AND INFORMATION CENTRE

The Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe in the centre of Berlin is the central German memorial to honour and commemorate the up to six million Jewish victims of the Holocaust. It was publicly inaugurated on 12 May 2005. The Memorial consists of the Field of Stelae designed by Peter Eisenman and the underground Information Centre, designed by Dagmar von Wilcken. The exhibition documents the persecution and annihilation of European Jewry as well as the historic sites of the crimes.

Opening Times of the Information Centre

Tue – Sun 10 am – 6 pm (last admission 5.15 pm)
Closed on: 24 – 26 Dec. Admission is free of charge.

Location ▶ Cora-Berliner-Strasse 1, 10117 Berlin

MEMORIAL TO THE HOMOSEXUALS PERSECUTED UNDER THE NATIONAL SOCIALIST REGIME

The Memorial was designed by Michael Elmgreen and Ingar Dragset. It serves both as a memorial to the homosexual victims of National Socialism and as »a lasting symbol against exclusion, intolerance and animosity towards gays and lesbians«. The Memorial was built in accordance with a resolution of the German Bundestag and opened to the public on 27 May 2008.

Location ▶ Tiergarten, Ebertstrasse, 10117 Berlin, opposite the Holocaust Memorial

MEMORIAL TO THE SINTI AND ROMA OF EUROPE MURDERED UNDER THE NATIONAL SOCIALIST REGIME

For decades the genocide of the European Sinti and Roma was hardly recognized by the German public. In 1992, the German government decided to erect a national memorial to the murdered European Sinti and Roma who were persecuted as »Gypsies«. On 24 October 2012 the Memorial, designed by the artist Dani Karavan, was publicly inaugurated. Its centre element is a fountain with a retractable stone column upon which a fresh flower is placed every day.

Location ▶ Simsonweg, 10117 Berlin, between Reichstag and Brandenburg Gate

MEMORIAL AND INFORMATION POINT FOR THE VICTIMS OF THE NATIONAL SOCIALIST 'EUTHANASIA'-KILLINGS

November 2011 the German government decided to erect a memorial to the victims of the national socialist 'Euthanasia'-Killings on the historical site of the building from which the killings were coordinated. It was designed by the architect Ursula Wilms, the landscape architect Heinz W. Hallmann and the artist Nikolaus Koliusis. The Memorial and Information Point was inaugurated on 2 September 2014.

Location ▶ Tiergartenstrasse 4, 10785 Berlin, at the Philharmonie
